

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

---

MARIE J. RUEST,

Plaintiff,

-v-

CITY OF ROCHESTER, ROCHESTER CITY POLICE
DEPARTMENT and INVESTIGATOR FRANK CAMP,

Defendants.

---

DECISION AND ORDER
12-CV-6552L

Plaintiff Marie J. Ruest filed a pro se action seeking relief under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 and other statutes on October 12, 2012 (Docket No. 1) and has requested permission to proceed in forma pauperis (Docket No. 2). Plaintiff alleges that on September 25 and/or through 28, 2012, the defendants, the City of Rochester Police Department and Investigator Frank Camp, violated her constitutional rights when, among other things, she was subjected to an illegal search and seizure of property. For the reasons discussed below, this action will be reassigned to District Judge Charles J. Siragusa.

On October 1, 2012, Nicholas J. Hirsch, plaintiff's house mate, filed an action, 12-CV-6525CJS, alleging, among other claims, that on September 25 and/or through 28, 2012, the defendants, the City of Rochester Police Department and Investigator Frank Camp, violated his constitutional rights when he was subjected to an illegal search and seizure of property. In order to avoid the risk of inconsistent orders or judgement with regard to the same occurrence or events, this action is hereby transferred to Judge Siragusa, the judge to whom the first action was assigned.

The determination of the petitioner/plaintiff's motion for permission to proceed in forma pauperis has been left to Judge Siragusa.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

A handwritten signature in black ink, reading "David G. Larimer", written in a cursive style. The signature is positioned above a horizontal line.

DAVID G. LARIMER
United States District Judge

DATED: November, 2012
Rochester, New York